

Symbol Meanings

Aircraft, such as airplanes or balloons: unsuccessful projects

Anchor: good luck in business and a stable love life. If this symbol is cloudy in appearance, it should be interpreted as the opposite.

Angel: good news, especially in love-related matters

Apples: long life; success in school or business

Arrows: bad messages or news from the direction in which the arrow points

Axe: problems overcome

Birds: good luck, possibly a good journey

Boat: a visit from a friend

Bouquet: very good luck, including good friends, success, and a happy love life

Bridge: a good journey

Butterfly: success and pleasure

Candle: enlightenment

Car: approaching wealth

Castle: an unexpected fortune monetary or otherwise

Circles: expect money or presents

Clouds: serious troubles, unless surrounded by dots! This means monetary success.

Clover: very good luck; happiness and prosperity

Coffin: lengthy sickness or the death of a loved one

Compasses: business travel

Cow: prosperity

Cross: trouble, delay or death

Crown: success and honor

Dagger: help from friends

Dragon: large and sudden changes

Eagle: honor and riches achieved through a change in housing

Elephant: luck and good health

Fish: good news from another country

Fox: backstabbing from a close friend

Goat: enemies

Greyhound: hard work paying off with good fortune

Gun: disharmony, slander

Hammer: challenges overcome

Hat: success in life

Heart: good things to come, such as money —if surrounded by dots—or marriage—if with a ring.

Horseshoe: success in choosing a partner; a lucky trip

Hourglass: imminent danger

House: business success

Kettle: death

Kite: a long trip leading to honor

Knife: disaster met through fighting and hatred

Ladder: travel

Letter, square of rectangular leaves: news; initials nearby signify the bearer of the news; dots with the letter means money, but if the image of the dots is cloudy, it means loss of money

Lines: journey, and the direction of the journey—when reading with nearby symbols; wavy lines mean difficult journeys; straight lines can also mean peace, happiness and a long life

Moon: happiness and success; a crescent moon means prosperity

Mountain: a powerful friend or, if many mountains, powerful enemies

Mushroom: a sudden separation of lovers following a fight

Owl: sickness, poverty, warning against starting a new business, deceit in love and other unlucky events

Pear: wealth, social status, possibly a financially beneficial business move or marriage

People: symbol varies with what they are doing, but the symbol of people is usually good

Pig: a faithful lover but jealous friends

Pine tree: contentment

Rabbit: success in a city

Rat: losses through enemies or employees

Reptiles: arguments

Ring: marriage; if a letter is nearby, it is the initial of the future spouse; if the ring is at the bottom, it means the marriage will not take place; if the ring is surrounded by clouds, it signifies an unhappy marriage

Saw: trouble coming from unfamiliar people

Scales, old-fashioned weight-measuring ones: a lawsuit

Scissors: arguments; a break-up; illness

Shark: danger of death

Sheep: prosperity and success

Ship: a successful journey

Snakes: a bad omen; take caution!

Squares: comfort and peace

Star: good luck; if surrounded by dots, wealth, and honor

Swan: good luck and a happy love life

Sword: arguments, especially between lovers; a broken sword means an enemy will win

Trees: good luck; prosperity and happiness; if surrounded by dots, fortune will be found in the country

Triangles: good luck or an unexpected inheritance

Umbrella: difficulty; annoyance

Unicorn: scandal

Wheel: inheritance

Worms: secret enemies